IF-IT-TEARS™

you can recycle it.

Here's a handy guide to what's recyclable and what's not.

The recycling program at your company accepts just about any office paper that tears and includes things like staples, tape, Post-It Notes®, plastic tabs, and spiral binders.

YOU CAN RECYCLE:

- All white & colored paper
- Adding machine tape
- Brochures & pamphlets
- Cardboard & paperboard boxes
- Computer printouts
- Envelopes (even with plastic windows or labels)
- Folders -- manila, coated, colored, even if they have plastic tabs or metal strips
- Junk mail, direct mail, etc.
- Legal pads, steno pads, & spiral notebooks
- Magazines
- Manuals with glue bindings
- Newspapers, including the inserts
- Posters
- Receipts
- Scratch, message, & memo pads
- Self-adhesive notes (Post-it Notes®)
- Soft cover books

PUT THESE IN THE TRASH:

All food and restroom trash including: candy wrappers, lunch bags, cups, napkins, paper towels, paper plates, waxed paper, carbon paper, Kleenex®, etc.

Visit the Balcones Recycling web site at www.balconesresources.com for more information about our recycling company. Remember: if-it-tears™, recycle it!

DID YOU KNOW???

Every ton of paper and cardboard we recycle at your company saves the equivalent of the following natural resources:

- 17 Trees
- 7000 Gallons of Water
- 380 Gallons of Oil
- 1 Homes powered for 6 months (in kWh)
- 89 Cubic feet of landfill space

Thanks for recycling every day.

It makes a world of difference!
